PRESS RELEASE

May 9, 2022

The St. Louis Area Police Chiefs Association's 30th Annual Police Officer Memorial Prayer Breakfast will be held during National Police Week this year on Wednesday, May 18, 2022 at the St. Charles Convention Center starting at 8:00 a.m. The purpose of this event is to honor police officers who have given their lives in service to their respective communities. The event also provides a platform for people of all faiths to show their respect for those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in the performance of their law enforcement duties. It includes officers from agencies within the Greater St. Louis metropolitan area. Additionally, we take this time to honor the surviving family members of the fallen police officers, who have sacrificed so much.

We are honored to have FOX 2 News Anchor, Jasmine Huda serve as the Master of Ceremonies for this year's event. We are also excited to announce that Missouri Supreme Court Judge, Mary Russell will provide the keynote address at this year's memorial prayer breakfast.

This breakfast is a non-political event and is strictly held in remembrance of police officers who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

Sincerely,
Chief Chris DiGiuseppi, Chairman
St. Louis Area Police Chiefs Association
